

ACCOMPANYING LETTER

The curriculum will be always accompanied by a short note transmission. Since this is a letter, it must respect the common rules.

- * it must contain only three paragraphs;
- * the object which specifies the data insertion;
- * the interest in establishing a working relationship with the company, highlighting the quality, the similarities between the requirements and the professional profile owned;
- * an invitation company to deepen mutual understanding.

Again, the way in which you write must center the curiosity and interest of the recipient and will contain two main elements:

- * style, to be easy, safe and never bureaucratic;
- * it must be written in first person;
